

Institute Mihajlo Pupin Science and Technology Policy Research Centre (STPRC) deals with studying and synthesizing development strategies, policies, plans, and programs to meet the needs of governmental agencies, regional and local administration, companies, as well as for the Institute's own needs. STPRC is also specialized in providing first-class innovation and business support to small and medium-sized companies which are realized mostly through EU-funded projects. STPRC is a participant in numerous international scientific research projects financed through various EU programs as a reference unit in the field of innovation, smart specialization, entrepreneurship, and the creation of strategic development documents, their evaluation, and methodology development.

We are looking for:

Junior Reasearcher

Job requirements for Junior Researcher:

- Enrolled or completed master's or doctoral studies
- Average grade of 8,5 and above
- An excellent command of the English language
- Required faculties: Faculty of Economics, Faculty of Organizational Sciences, FEFA

Following skills will be considered as an asset:

Experience with R&D projects
Interest and ability to work on European projects
Ability to work in a team
Organizational skills
Work in advanced statistics programs

Following skills will be considered as an asset:

good understanding of organizational principles and practices - which can function as a bridge between the technical and management aspects of the projects

If you are eager to work in practice, apply knowledge gained through academic research, and do research related to the practice, then

We look forward to your application, which should include:

- CV
- links from your portfolio with detailed description of parts you were personally responsible for or involved in
- other interests
- desired/expected salary
- your start date

At e-mail: kadrovska@pupin.rs

Due to high volume of job applications, we cannot respond to your application individually and only successful applicants will be contacted.